

Financial Assistance Summary

No individual who is eligible for financial assistance will be charged more than Amounts Generally Billed” or “AGB”. AGB is the amount generally billed by the Hospital for emergency and other medically necessary care to patients who have health insurance.

Eligibility requirements and assistance offered under Chadron Community Hospital’s policy:

Financial assistance under this Policy is a resource of last resort. Financial assistance is available to patients with demonstrated inability to pay. Chadron Community Hospital uses an individual’s Household Income compared to the poverty guidelines set forth by the Federal government to determine eligibility for financial assistance and the amount of financial assistance to be provided.
